

Norwell Sociables

WHERE OLD FRIENDS MEET AND NEW FRIENDS ARE WELCOME

January 2010 Newsletter

www.norwellsociables.org

Happy New Year Everyone,

It is back to work, back to school and back to great Sociables events! I hope that everyone had a wonderful holiday.

The Ladies Night Out Holiday Party in December was a fantastic night. We had a great turn out for the event. A big thank you to Kera & Holly for organizing the event. And a big thank you our wonderful hostess Heather!

Tot time has some great events this month. They will be heading to Creative Playthings and to the renovated Boston Bowl in Hanover. Book Club will be meeting this month. They are reading Jamie Ford's novel "On the Corner of Bitter and Sweet". Don't miss this discussion being held at the home of Jenny Cohane's on January 20th.

We have lots more fun events to come in the New Year! Make sure to check the newsletter and keep your calendars marked.

Happy New Year,
Sejal Cartwright

Book Club

janerohan@yahoo.com

Jamie Ford's novel, Hotel on the Corner of Bitter and Sweet is a story of what happened to the Japanese Americans in the Seattle area during World War II. This work is both bitter and sweet as it depicts life in the internment camps as well as the innocence of first love. Ford tackles the cruelty of racism and sheds light on what is perceived as a shameful episode in American history. We catch a glimpse of the damages caused by war not on the battlefield but on the human heart. This book is not only thought provoking but heartwarming as it depicts the end of a life well lived at a critical time in American history. We hope you join us on 20th January at 7.30 pm at Jenny Keohane's house, 667 Main St (please park at the Cushing Center and enter her house at the barn).
